Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance

1	On September 19, 2018, while working at the Home Depot in Jersey City, New Jersey, the offender was observed via video footage removing a Glacier Bay water dispenser and a Milwaukee 7-in-1 combo kit. When questioned by the Jersey City Police Department, the offender agreed to a search of his vehicle, where the stolen items were recovered. The offender was arrested, charged with shoplifting, and released on a summons. He is scheduled to appear in New Jersey (Hudson County) Superior Court on October 4, 2018.

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

Until this arrest, the offender has had no issues of noncompliance. He is remorseful of this setback and willing to accept the directives of the court and the probation office. The offender was directed to report to Martin's Place in Jersey City, where he is currently completing a reentry program, and will also commence Moral Regonation Therapy (MRT) at our office, beginning on October 3, 2018. At this juncture, the probation office is requesting no formal action at this time, as we would prefer to await the outcome of the underlying charge, as well as the offender's progress in the reentry and cognitive behavioral therapy programs.

Respectfully submitted,

By: Gisella M. Bassolino
